On 11-04-09, at approximately 11 a.m., Karon Lamar Peek entered the Peoples Bank in Covington, Georgia and presented the bank teller with a note demanding money . The teller placed the money into a black backpack and Karon L. Peek fled the bank on foot. Karon L. Peek was picked up a short distance later by another male (Marcus Marquette Willis), who was driving a 1986 Buick Regal (white in color). Another bank employee observed the incident and called 911. Bank employee then followed the perps and gave 911 dispatchers location information until Newton County Sheriff Deputies and Covington Police Officers were able to felony stop the vehicle on I-20. Subjects were interviewed and confessed to the Robbery. Money taken in the Robbery was recovered and both perps are being held at Newton County S.O. on Robbery by Intimidation charges. Karon L. Peek never produced a firearm or acted as if he had a firearm according to the bank teller. Photos are of Marcus Marquette Willis - D.O.B. 11-10-87, and Karon Lamar Peek - D.O.B. 02-02-92.
