ARRESTED

Case #: 10-015374

Incident Location:

Kay Jewelry Store

Newton Plaza in Covington

Offender(s) info:

Chara Montel Goolsby

Scenario:

On July 5th, 2010 – three men entered the Kay Jewelry in Covington, Georgia and forced the store employees to the ground at gun-point. The three intruders took an undisclosed amount of jewelry – then left in a dark colored minivan. After a 14 month investigation – which included following up on anonymous tips, numerous interviews and DNA comparison - detectives were finally able to make an arrest on Chara Montel Goolsby of Atlanta.

On September 28th, 2011 – detectives from the Covington Police Department with assistance from the US Marshall's Service were able to locate and apprehend Goolsby at his apartment in Atlanta.

The investigation is ongoing until the two other offenders are in custody.
