

Covington Police Department Receives Seventh Accreditation Award

Police Chief Stacey Cotton and several members of the Covington Police Department travelled to Salt Lake City, Utah, November 18-22, 2009 to receive their seventh accreditation award from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. Accompanying Chief Cotton to the conference was Sergeant Chuck Groover, Accreditation Manager and Training Officer; Ms. Cheryl Vaughn, Records Manager; and Mr. Herrion Ervin, Evidence Custodian. The police department was accredited in 1985, becoming the first agency in Georgia and the tenth in the nation to be accredited.
