Each member of the Covington Police Department shares an equal responsibility in providing the highest quality of professional law enforcement services to our community and the citizens we serve, and we must always conduct ourselves with the highest degree of integrity and professionalism.

The role of law enforcement in society and our community's expectation has changed significantly in recent years. We must continue to meet the challenges facing us through personal and professional development. Our commitment is addressed in our mission statement and value statement.

This Policy and Procedure Manual is intended to provide you with the direction and guidance you need to accomplish our mission and achieve excellence. Spend time becoming familiar with these policies and procedures so that when a situation arises, you will know what you are expected to do to handle the situation in an efficient, effective and professional manner.
